Addictions Counseling

The A.A.S. in Addictions Counseling degree is designed to prepare students for careers in addictions counseling. The curriculum provides theoretical coursework along with practical, hands-on instruction, and field experience necessary to attain certification as a certified supervised alcohol and drug counselor (CSC-AD).

Successful graduates are also prepared for transfer to a 4-year institution for further study in psychology, social work, or related human services programs.

Students already possessing a bachelor's degree who are seeking the coursework and supervised fieldwork needed to become certified in addictions counseling can also benefit from this program.

Core Courses:

- ▶ General Psychology
- ▶ Human Growth & Development
- ▶ Abnormal Psychology
- ▶ Psychology of Women
- ▶ Psychology of Adjustment
- ▶ Drugs & Human Behavior
- ▶ Addictions Treatment Delivery
- ▶ Ethics in Human Service & Addictions Counseling
- ▶ Intro to Counseling & Case Management
- ▶ Fieldwork in Addictions Counseling
- ▶ Social Problems

Maryland State Certification

Students interested in Maryland certification should contact the Maryland Board of Professional Counselors and Therapists for all licensure and certification requirements at 410-764-4732 or <https://health.maryland.gov/bopc/>.
