FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS

Garrett College's Fine and Performing Arts concentration is ideal for students interested in studying in art, music or theatre. Students will earn an Associate in Arts degree before transferring to a four-year college or university to complete a bachelor's degree.

The Fine and Performing Arts concentration includes a wide range of interesting courses such as:

- ▶ Basic Design
- ▶ Drawing
- ▶ Painting
- ▶ Ceramics
- ▶ Printmaking
- ▶ Applied Music, Voice
- ▶ Applied Instrumental
- ▶ Applied Piano
- ▶ Fundamentals of Technical Theatre: Stagecraft
- ▶ Fundamentals of Acting
- ▶ Stage Design

The College features an art studio as well as a gallery to display student work and visiting exhibitions. The Garrett College auditorium is used for both classes and the production of plays, concerts and other performances. The auditorium is also the main venue for the Garrett Lakes Arts Festival, the largest presenter of performing arts and arts education in Garrett County.
