LIBERAL ARTS

Garrett College's liberal arts program is ideal for students interested in English, journalism, history, philosophy, languages, or pre-law. The liberal arts program gives students the background they need to be successful at a four-year college or university in a wide range of the arts and sciences.

Students begin their educational studies at Garrett College earning an Associate in Arts (A.A.) degree, then transfer to complete a bachelor's degree.

The liberal arts degree can prepare students for a future in fields such as:

- ▶ Reporting
- ▶ Editing
- ▶ Writing
- ▶ Broadcasting
- ▶ Public Relations
- ▶ Advertising
- ▶ Law

Students in the liberal arts program must complete 60 credit hours in the disciplines of communications, humanities, social science, science, mathematics and computer science.

The liberal arts curriculum at Garrett College focuses on the following:

- ▶ Art
- ▶ English
- ▶ Journalism
- ▶ Music
- ▶ Philosophy
- ▶ Theater
- ▶ Foreign Language
- ▶ History
