SOCIAL AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

Garrett College's Social and Behavioral Sciences concentration offers a variety of courses that prepare students for transferring to upper division or career programs. Students will earn an Associate in Arts degree before transferring to a four-year college or university to complete a bachelor's degree.

The Social and Behavioral Sciences concentration is recommended for students interested in the following areas:

- ▶ Psychology
- ▶ Sociology
- ▶ Social Work
- ▶ Criminal Justice
- ▶ Anthropology
- ▶ Counseling
- ▶ Political Science
- ▶ Law Enforcement

The program is designed to enable students to obtain mastery of the fundamental knowledge, skills, and abilities required for success in the disciplines of social and behavioral science. In addition, the program enables students to develop the ability to assess claims and make judgements based on well-supported evidence in social and behavioral sciences.
